The Olhausen Sharon is one of the most beautiful of the dining-top tables available. Entirely made in the U.S.A., this table is solid maple and the one we have in stock is a 7' model finished in Matte Charcoal. This table is meant to be used as a dining table and matching benches are available (see pricing below). New dining tables made in the U.S. out of maple start at $5,000. This table offers the additional function of a pool table with beautiful mother-of-pearl sites (a significant upgrade for no additional cost) and the best cushions in billiards for $6,995. The benches are $2,400 a piece and the Dining top is $2,200. Dining tops for other tables are available, but there may be more obstructions beneath with the legs and stretchers.

Other Olhausen models that can function as dining tables are the West End, the Madison. Starting prices in Maple with standard finishes are listed below for 7' models.

As you can see, the apron of the table will make a difference when you are seated for a meal. It is best to have a smaller apron and no obstruction below, but that's not how pool tables are generally made because of the structure needed to support the slate. Dining table pool tables must then be designed carefully to ensure that the slate is supported, the table is strong, and you and your guests are comfortable.

If you plan to play pool more than you plan to dine, you can make exceptions, however, that is the reason the Sharon on page one is designed the way it is, for the most comfortable dining experience on a pool table.

Brunswick Billiards offers several models with short aprons and no obstructions beneath the table. Most of these models are going to be in the $7,500 range and up. There are a couple of them in the under $6,000 category, but even the discount table manufacturers must put significant design effort into creating dining table pool tables, so you will find that the prices will be similar. Imports will likely offer more savings on the benches.

The most comfortable dining options are listed first with some of the less expensive suggestions later. You will notice that the aprons are much smaller on these first models.

The Hickory is available in 7' and 8' sizes (Note Dining Top Availability) $4,550 (7'), $4,775 (8')

7' Dining Tops $995: Espresso & Tuscana, Rustic Grey (RG) & Rustic Dark Brown (RDB) also listed but not showing available
8' Dining Tops Avail $1,375: Rustic Grey, Black Forest (Canton), Espresso, RDB, Nutmeg & Matte Black

*White Box Accessory Kit & Standard Cloth included in the price; prices include delivery & prof. installation.

The Brunswick Soho is available in an 8' model only; it is done in a Nutmeg finish: $6,900; total with the Dining Top is $8,275.00. Brunswick storage benches are available for $1,375.

The Loft is done in a slightly different leg but the same Nutmeg finish, also available only in the 8' model for the same price.

Both tables come with the standard White Box Accessory Kit, standard cloth and the price includes delivery & professional installation.

The Conversion Top for Table Tennis is available for all 7' and 8' models for $450. This includes 2 paddles, 3 balls, and a clamp on net (Brunswick or Olhausen branding).

The Caddy is highly recommended. $259

Brunswick Henderson $7,195; $8,570

with dining top:

This is the most elegant design in the Brunswick dining table line. With Super Speed cushions, this table will play like a Gold Crown and bring dining functionality if it's needed. The beautiful Espresso dining top creates the versatility to change your room from game room to crafting, banquet or dining room.

Choose any cloth color available in the Brunswick Centennial cloth or the Brunswick Standard cloth selection

Add enough storage to fit an entire Accessory Kit in an Espresso bench w a black pleather cushioned top. We also suggest Legacy Billiards which has some Nutmeg-finished (very close to Espresso) caster chairs for a reasonable price.

Bench Dimensions: 75.5"L x 22.5"W x 21.5"H

The 8' Brunswick Sanibel is available in both 7' & 8' in either Rustic Dark Brown or Rustic Grey (shown below) is $6,275-7,325

The Sanibel embodies the contemporary aspect of mountain modern style with rustic dark brown or rustic grey finishes. While modern style tables have aesthetic appeal, it is important to consider that serious pool players might prefer a different leg design. Tables with legs located at the corners are not generally favored by dedicated billiards enthusiasts. For such players, tables like the Brunswick Gold Crown VI, which feature legs positioned further under the cabinet and come in three finishes, may be more suitable.

The Sanibel would, however, work very well as a dining/playing option because the legs are at the corners, and it leaves plenty of room for chairs. The dining surface will be slightly higher than normal at approximately 32" high: The Dining Tops for the Sanibel are matching and found Left.

Here are some suggestions for Brunswick pool tables with dining tops that don't have a narrow apron and have some obstructions below. These tables might not offer the best dining comfort, but if dining is occasional and pool is the primary use, they provide an economical choice and bring the 7' models back into consideration:

The Brunswick Botanic 7' or 8' Pool Table is available in Rustic Dark Brown and Dark Charcoal: $3,950-4,995; the price depends upon Accessory Kit, the type of cloth chosen, and client location. Matching Dining Tops are available on all Brunswick pool tables for $1,000-$1,375. (We recommend the Matte Black Dining to with the Dark Charcoal model.

Wood dining tops are expensive and there is another option. There is a product called the Duratop which is a Naugahyde-covered foam insert that folds out to the length of the table. When you put the Duratop on the table and cover it with a high-quality fitted table cover, it gives you a flat top that would be an excellent buffet table or even dining table for occasional use.

The benches are available for order separately and in any of the finishes shown on the previous page. We recommend purchasing the Legacy product even if you are considering an Olhausen or Brunswick pool table because they are not available from either of the two manufacturers.

Please do not hesitate to ask questions. There are many things available on the market that may look good online but are not what they appear to be when they arrive at your home in crates. We highly recommend using a professional to set up any pool table that you purchase because your table is only as good as the person that sets it up. Problems with pool tables include unlevel slate, popped slate, cracked slate, cracked wood, and that's just to name a few.

Purchasing from a reputable manufacturer that warranties its products is highly recommended. We inspect our freight for damage, handle any damage claims, load everything for transport the way it is supposed to be done, and we then load it into your home and set it up professionally. We save our customers money by ensuring that everything is exactly the way you ordered it. We work with designers on large projects as well. We have also been in this business for 30 years and we have all the necessary tools and equipment to make sure your purchase goes smoothly.
